

Stephen Tipping

MM Music Performance/BM Music Education

Drumset, Orchestral, World, Steelpan

Stephen Tipping is a percussionist, educator, arranger, and clinician known throughout the Greater Philadelphia Region for his excellence in marching arts, classical percussion, and jazz/world percussion. Stephen holds a Bachelors of Music in Music Education from the University of Delaware and a Masters of Music Performance from the University of Arizona. Stephen has performed across the East Coast, Arizona, Europe, Israel, and Puerto Rico.

In addition, Stephen is also an active performer throughout the region, having recently appeared as a featured soloist with Wilmington Theater Company Bootless Stageworks during their Annual Artist's Fundraiser, performing Ney Rosauero's Concerto for Vibraphone and Orchestra.

Stephen currently serves as Instructor of Percussion at Delaware State University, Caption Head of perennial TOB Chapter 9 Champions Caesar Rodney High School Marching Band, and as Bass Technician with the 2016 WGI World Championship A-Class Finalists Aftermath Percussion. Information on scheduling Stephen can be found at www.stephentipping.com.